

LANY, Home Is Where The Hurt Is

(i gotta get outta here) we live on different streets, but we share the same pain her stepdad doesn't even know her middle-name and you're so good at everything but loving me and hate the man i hope to be two choices, stay or leave what good is it to dream if we ain't gonna move our feet, so

saturday, runaway, get out of the circus little town, never found any kind of purpose we both know our broken hearts deserve this
'cause home is where the hurt is we live on different streets, but we share the same world her stepdad doesn't even know she's into girls and half my friends are drunk or hooked on something worse the other half just wish they were

'cause home is where the hurt is sunset, 40 west, head for that horizon don't you look back again, gotta keep on driving
we both know our broken hearts deserve this

ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh

'cause home is where the hurt is
don't you look back again, gotta keep on driving
