

LANY, yea, babe, no way

White jeans,
Daydream
You and me,
Our sheets
Wearing nike
Kissing, no sleep

Damn!
Tell me where we went wrong?
Been in love for so long
Now it's over!
How, how did we get this far
And still not know, who we are?
Is this really OVER?

Everything was better when you would call
And I'd be like that, "yea, babe"
We should talk about love again
Every night I'm wide awake
I almost call you
Then I'm like, "no way"
Oh, no way!

Hate how it feels
I know you're down the streets
With someone else, not me
Time, I need time
Can't forget about how you let me down

Damn!
Tell me where we went wrong?
Been in love for so long
Now it's over!
How, how did we get this far
And still not know, who we are?
Is this really OVER?

Everything was better when you would call
And I'd be like that, "yea, babe"
We should talk about love again
Every night I'm wide awake
I almost call you
Then I'm like, "no way"
Oh, no way
