

Lapis Lazuli, Angel Without Wings

I don't know how I can thank you for all that you've done
You came through right when I needed it
I can't believe, can this be real
Am I standing here now
Facing my horrors and living my life again?
At last my friend, we're here again
And now nothing can stop us, 'cause together we are untouchable

I can see trouble up ahead, I can also see us overcoming it all
All of my fears will be laid to rest, and I know you will stand there by my side cause

You saved me
From the darkest of voids in my life
I can't explain what I feel
All I can tell is that you
Are an angel without any wings

The light in this blackened world
The star which I follow when I lose my ways
The warmth in this frozen place
The answers to questions I cannot find

Embracing me
He catches me when I'm falling

The eye within the storm
The walls that will never crumble down

Embracing me
He catches me when I'm falling

I can see trouble up ahead, I can also see us overcoming it all
All of my fears will be laid to rest, and I know you will stand there by my side cause

You saved me
From the darkest of voids in my life
I can't explain what I feel
All I can tell is that you
Are an angel without any wings

Are you incapable to look out for yourself
Are you the child you appear to be
I laugh at you, you sorry excuse for human
Nothing more but a spawn

You always have someone watching your back
But in the end, you are alone
And what happens then, I ask you
When you break down and cry?
I can't see why I should neglect him
He will stand by me 'till I die
And I will not stray from our path

You lie, deep inside you know it too
You will never last
One day he will be gone forever
And you will fade away

He will never leave, and you know it
Your black prophecy is a lie
We will stay as one 'till the end

You stupid little girl, why can't you understand, they always fail you in the end

I will wait and see
And so will you

I am laying awake, staring up to the sky, wondering which star you fell from My time has come, ours has begun
And I know we will make it if we join and fight as one, together
I can't believe this could be real
And now nothing can stop us, cause together we are untouchable

I can see trouble up ahead, I can also see us overcoming it all
All of my fears will be laid to rest, and I know you will stand there by my side cause

You saved me
From the darkest of voids in my life
I can't explain what i feel
All I can tell is that you
Are an angel without any wings
