

Lapis Lazuli, Forgive, Never Forget

This has gone on far too long
Can't seem to realise
No, it will not go away
Will it ever

We will fall
Can't look into your eyes, no
All I see
Is the lies

All is crumbling around me
Cant seem to wake up
From whats dwelling deep within Clad in sorrows

We will fall
Can't look into your eyes, no
All I see
Is the lies

How can I get past this
How can we see this trough, I wonder
How can I let this go
I can forgive, never forget

Am I in far to deep, feels like im drowning now
I get the feeling that I won't make it out not alive, not as myself

Lost in darkness alone, can't find a single light
The very life that was once my own has died all is gone, all has been lost
