

Lapis Lazuli, Serpent (Black Sun)

Now my sun is turning black, all the light is gone
Why have you left me here to die, oh, have all my devotion been wasted on you?

Feel my body embrace you, take you far away
Leaving your false gods behind, they can't save you now, I am darkness incarnated

And now, its filling me, the darkness of death
Oh Ra, where have you gone?
Now, I cant see the light no more
Apophis calling me

Light of Ra now burns away, he is dead to me
Why did you leave me far behind, I gave all my life to you, but you pushed it away

Feel my venom binding you, to my misery
Leaving your so-called life behind, I'm gonna help you break free from their tyranny

And now, its filling me, the darkness of death
Oh Ra, where have you gone?
Now, I can't see the light no more
Apophis calling me
