

Lapis Lazuli, When Dreams Collide

Time seems to stop forever
When you are trapped within a lie
Days turn to weeks, months into years
As we ignore the voices

Can we keep on going like this
Will there be no end to this?

Still I remember, have not forgotten
Broken dreams and shattered hopes

Theres a storm incoming and I dont know if we will survive it or not
Are we fighting in vain, what will the outcome be? In the end, what happens?

Where will this finally lead to
When someones taking their last breath
Where do we start, where does it end
Who is the one to go

Can we keep on going like this
Will there be no end to this?

Still I remember, have not forgotten
Broken dreams and shattered hopes
