

Larger Than Life, Growing Apart

Shut down, you turned us off.
Threw us all out, cleared off the floor, left us wanting more.
And you know it ain't right, you said it was okay,
To play here tonight, to act in the same way we do all the time,
Now you changed your mind, with us in the cold, must suck growing old.

At home, I still sit alone,
Can't live a lie, i'm still a kid inside,
I will grow up in time. Here we go.

And you say the time has come,
For me to give up, and stop this pretend, or we're at an end.
And there must be a way, for things to get better than it was here today,
I damn near upset her with the way that i am, the way she wants me to be,
I worry too much, well love's such a crush.

At home, I still sit alone,
Can't live a lie, i'm still a kid inside,
I will grow up in time. Let me go.

I wont grow apart, I wont grow apart,
I wont grow apart, I wont grow apart,
I wont grow apart, I wont grow apart,
I wont grow apart, I wont grow apart,
I wont grow apart, I wont grow apart,
I wont grow apart, I wont grow apart,
I wont grow apart, I wont grow apart,
I wont grow apart, I wont grow apart,
I wont grow apart, Grow apart.
