

Lari White, This Is Love

(Lari White/Austin Cunningham/Chuch Cannon)

This is love, this is love, this is love, Hey!

Welcome to the danger zone, and the wildest ride
That you've ever known
Blind curves up ahead, baby hold on tight
Put your seatbelt on
It's what you're looking for, it's what you're running from Where logic fails and reason comes undone
Baby here's the deal
It's a hand of steel, in a velvet glove

This is love, this is love
Are you ready are you tough enough
And it's bigger than the both of us
Hey! This is love

And this is where we dig down deep
For that buried treasure, it don't come cheap
We've shared the taste of the sweetest wine
Now we're laying our hearts down on the line
There's a seventh Heaven in your eyes
I want it all, no compromise
Baby you and me, this is where we see
Just what we're made of

This is love, this is love
Are you ready are you tough enough
And it's bigger than the both of us
Hey! This is love

It makes you laugh, it makes you cry
Lays you low and makes you high
But we'll keep falling, falling
Till we rise above
This is love, this is love, this is love

This is love, this is love
And it's bigger than the both of us
This is love, this is love
Are you ready are you tough enough
Hey! This is
Hey! This is love
Oh, oh, oh, oh
