

Las Vegas Parano, Inside

drops of water from upstairs
come down
on my head
oh Lord don't let me drown I know I'm a sinner please Lord don't let me drown all alone... so many voices in my head hundreds of sorrows eat my faith
so many voices in my head
hundreds of sorrows eat my faith
I can't stop the rain
I close my eyes tonight I see your face again and I hear you in my head deep down inside of me I hear you cryin'
deep down some part of me is cryin' with you...
so many voices in my head
so many voices in my head hundreds of sorrows eat my faith
