

Las Vegas Parano, Red love

she's kind of a woman you can never ignore she needs her look to scare your soul she drives you crazy when she comes around she likes to tease you just for fun
but tonight...

tonight I see her fear
red love is comin' over...
over...

over...
they say she used to be a star of this town
she never cryies she's a bounch of lies hundereds of men lost their minds the queen of hearts can only smile
but tonight...

over...
