There were times you maked me cry
lookin for a reason why
There were times you make me fly stay with me untill I die

stay with me

stay with me, til the end of the world
til the end of the world

yeaahh.....o nana..o nana
