

Last Winter, Kiss So Hard

You kiss so hard that I stop breathing, whoa-oh-oh-oh.
You kiss so hard, you kiss so hard, you kiss so...
So I got your letter early Monday morning and I could not believe my eyes.
It said: "Things aren't working here, I'm coming home my dear.
Please tell me you haven't forgotten me."
You kiss so hard that I stop breathing, whoa-oh-oh.
And I could stay right here, oh won't you let me?
You kiss so hard that I stop breathing, whoa-oh-oh.
And I could die right here but you wouldn't let me.
Now I'm at the station waiting, 7:30 like your letter clearly stated.
You said that you'd meet me here, but you weren't there my dear.
I can't believe you broke my heart again.
You kiss so hard that I stop breathing, whoa-oh-oh.
And I could stay right here, oh won't you let me?
You kiss so hard that I stop breathing, whoa-oh-oh.
And I could die right here but you wouldn't let me.
You kiss so hard that I stop breathing, whoa-oh-oh.
And I could stay right here, oh won't you let me?
You kiss so hard that I stop breathing, whoa-oh-oh.
And I could stay right here, oh won't you let me?
You kiss so hard that I stop breathing, whoa-oh-oh.
And I could die right here but you wouldn't let me.
You wouldn't let me.
