

Laura, Harmony (prod. Profanumbeats)

i don't care about the moments that passed they'll never come back i don't care for the past i can't change it i have to forget

so many years i have learned what is true what is false where i don't wanna be so many years i have learned not to regret all my choices

i try to live in harmony
i'm still looking for balance in me try to live in harmony
i'm over it
i'm over it
i'm over it i'm over it
i'm over it

try to live in harmony
i'm over it
i'm over it
i'm over it

i know the taste of defeat it helped me to be better version of myself i know that nothing happens without any reason and i know this is my way

try to live in harmony
i'm over it
i'm over it
i'm over it

try to live in harmony
i'm over it
i'm over it
