

Lauren Spencer-Smith, Fingers Crossed

Introduced me to your family
Watched my favorite shows on your TV
Made me breakfast in the morning
When you got home from work
Making plans to travel 'round the world
Said we'd always put each other first
Old love songs we used to play to
Funny, now I hate you

Now, I remember when you'd call me late at night
I gave you my hours and advice
Just tryna fix you and all your daddy issues
But now, I don't even miss you anymore
So I, I want all the tears back that I cried
All the hours spent giving advice
On how to write your songs
All you did was prove me wrong
When you said you loved me
Well, you must've had your fingers crossed

Should've paid attention to my friends
Telling me how bad it's gonna end
Always giving their opinions
Now I wish I would have listened

I could say I'm sorry, but I'm not
You don't deserve the one thing that you lost

Now, I remember when you'd call me late at night
And I gave you my hours and advice
Just tryna fix you and all your daddy issues
But now, I don't even miss you anymore
So I, I want all the tears back that I cried
All the hours spent giving advice
On how to write your songs
All you did was prove me wrong
When you said you loved me
Well, you must've had your fingers crossed

Oh-oh, oh-oh
Your fingers crossed
Oh-oh, oh-oh
Your fingers crossed
Oh-oh, oh-oh
Oh, when you said you loved me
Well, you must've had your fingers crossed

Oh I, I want all the tears back that I cried
All the hours spent giving advice
On how to write your songs
All you did was prove me wrong
Wish you said you loved me
When you didn't have your fingers crossed
