

Lauren Spencer-Smith, That Part

We've only been dating for year
But I'm gonna take a risk and sound a little weird
I want the picket fences
And an arch around the entrance
Two Ikea twin beds for the kids

It's normal to be a little scared
But I wanna bend the rules and play some truth or dare
So ask me any question
I don't really care
The only thing I care about is if you'll meet me there

And I wanna take your name
And I know you want the same

When you hold me
I see the end of a movie
Everyone thinks that we're crazy
And maybe we are
I hate the middle, let's skip to the part

When you kiss me
Surrounded by friends and our family
Know we're too young to get married
We knew from the start
I'm sick of waiting
So can we just skip to that part?

The only way this is gonna hurt
Is if we got old and you were the one to go first
So I'm wishin' on elevens
That we both meet up in Heaven
And fall in love again just like the first time

And I know it all sounds lame
But I know you feel the same

When you hold me
I see the end of a movie
Everyone thinks that we're crazy
And maybe we are
I hate the middle, let's skip to the part

When you kiss me
Surrounded by friends and our family
Know we're too young to get married
We knew from the start
I'm sick of waiting
So can we just skip to that part?

When I met you
I told my friends that I'd date you
No one believed it would come true
But look where we are
We're on our way
I know one day we'll get to that part
