

Laurent Wery, I'm Going In (feat. Clarence)

I'm going for my dreams
and I don't need nobody People love to envy
what they cannot do

Strangers calling me names but I keep their motion absolute I'm just trying to live my life but all you do is complaining All I do is carry on

I'm going for my dreams
and I don't need nobody
People love to envy
what they cannot do

I'm going in
I'm going in
You can tell I'm going in

I'm going in
I'm going in Me and Wery going in A little something for your drink
