

Lauv, Who (feat. BTS)

outlines of your eyes and visions of you girl, I think I need a minute to figure out what is what isn't these choices and voices they're all in my head sometimes you make me feel crazy sometimes I swear I think you hate me like

I need a walk

I need to get out of here cause I need you know who are you

cause you're not the girl I fellin' love whit, baby

who are you?

cause something has changed

you're not the same, I hate it

I , I am sick of waiting for love, love

I know , I know you're not the one , one feeling hypnotized by the words that you said don't lie to me just get in my head

when the morning comes you're still in my bed

but it's so, so cold

who are you

who are you?
