

Lazlo Bane, All The Time In The World

Well it's a lovely day under the warm sun
Sit back and soak up the rays, there's nothing better to do
Well it won't be too long until I get burn
So much for ... so late it can't protect me from you
That's right, we're near the after life
One inch closer to extinction every time that we turn
Well alright, we've been acting like
There's nothing wrong as long as we've got all the time in the world
We've got, all the time in the world
We've got
Another day, another week, and one more week goes by
Would you just please make up your mind
Don't wait to procrastinate
Let's take a holiday 'cause we've got all the time in the world
We've got, all the time in the world
We've got, all the time in the California sings into the sea,
I know that you're waiting for your real life to begin
Well that's the problem with people like you in the end
Well it's a lovely day under the warm sun
You know it won't be too long until we really get burn
But that's life, and this is my advice:
That you deserve what you get most all time in the world
We've got, all the time in the world
We've got, all the time in the world
We've got, all the time in the world
We've got
We've got, all the time in the world
We've got, all the time in the world
We've got, all the time in the world
