

Lazlo Bane, Are You Talking To Me?

She's on the plane to San Diego
If we should all go down she'll tell us where to go
And when she smiles and says, "hello",
I just wanna know,

Chorus:

Are you talking to me?
Are you talking to me?
How 'bout a cocktail from the cart?
Her mouth is movin' but my head is in the stars
Did you enjoy the picture show?
Well I don't know,

Chorus:

Are you talking to me?
Are you talking to me?
Are you talking to me?
Are you talking to me?
