Lea Salonga, I Remember The Boy

Today I heard them play the song again An old familiar strain from way back when Every note and every line It's always been a favorite song of mine

It used to haunt me so some years ago Reminds me of a boy I used to know And although the melody lives on The memories and the boy are all but gone

And while the song still brings that certain glow And the words still sing of love I know It isn't quite the way it was before I remember the boy But I don't remember the feeling anymore

The promises we made seemed easier then As if we knew our love would never end But seasons change and time erases the tears As quickly as the rivers disappear

So while the song still brings that certain glow And the words still sing of love I know It isn't quite the way it was before I remember the boy But I don't remember the feeling I remember the boy But I don't remember the feeling anymore
