

Lea Salonga, Special Memory

(Verse 1)

You will always be, a special part of me
You will always be, a special memory
I'll always cherish wonderful moments you have given me
You are in my heart, where ever I may be

(Verse 2)

All the times we've shared, will always be to me
Songs my heart will sing, refreshing melody
I'll pull together all of your laughter like a symphony
I'll remember you, where ever I may be

(Verse 3)

I'll pull together all of your laughter, like a symphony
I'll remember you where ever I may be
I'll remember you, where ever I may be
I'll remember you, where ever I may be
