

Lea Salonga, Vision Of You

Time moves the summer wind,
I can see your face again
Was it such a tragedy,
being you, being me?
Smoke clears, the picture fades
While I stood back in yesterday
All the strangers come and go,
All of them will never know..
Nobody's touch, feels like your touch
Nobody gets to me that much
Nobody's kiss, moves me inside
And I have no place left to hide
Tell me what can I do,
I have a vision of you..
Tell me what can I do,
with this vision of you..
Did I walk, did you run?
What's the way to love someone?
Oh my darling, did we know what it meant, when we let go?
Nobody's touch, feels like your touch
Nobody gets to me that much
Nobody's kiss, moves me inside
Tell me what can I do,
I have a vision of you..
Tell me what can I do,
with this vision of you,
with this vision of you..
How can a candle ever burn so bright?
Casting a shadow on my life
I am blinded by your light
Even without you...
Nobody's touch, feels like your touch
Nobody gets to me that much
Nobody's kiss, moves me inside
Tell me what can I do,
I have a vision of you..
Tell me what can I do,
with this vision of you,
with this vision of you..
Tell me what can I do,
I have a vision of you
Tell me what can I do,
with this vision of you
