

Lead Weight, Don Benefactor (Death is an Adviser)

Why should I regret?
I'll drop it one day
My "personal history"
Is closed today.

What's wrong with that?
Why shouldn't people know me?
The ultimate freedom
of being unknown

Death is an adviser...
Eternal companion...
It is always to left,
At an arm's length

You are important
In your own mind
That must be changed
To be annoyed with everything
