

Leaf-Fat, Sunfall

You painted your side again
And it is not dark
You said the colours are yours
But i think you lie

Did you wake up?
And forgot the book?
And the pages are torn?
Do you want to see the lights in shade?

Words are just for fools(the sun will fall right from the sky)

Now you're complete
With your skin that is shivering
Now you're so sweet
And the sun will fall from the sky!

Are you shure that your eyes can see?
Or you learned how to watch?
Now it's so simple

I saw you there at the corner of a blindfold and the fog
On the other side you must kiss that frog
It's ok, now, you better believe it...

Now you're complete
With your skin is burning
Now you're so sweet
And the sun will fallon your head!
