

Leaf-Fat, Untitled

I just want to be myself
But sometimes it's hard to be
Dont let your dreams go by !

I feel like the burden is careing me
And its just the other word for insanity !
Where's the picture I used to see?
Where's the way that used to lead?

I have a whole fucking life in front of me
And the voices inside of my head
I can't take it anymore
I need sculpture to adore, can't take it anymore ! Anymore!

Through all these years I explored
All I found were tears of the world
Coming down from the hill to my problems I have to deal with
I feel like the burden is careing me
And its just the other word for insanity !
Where's the picture I used to see?
Where's the way that used to lead?

So take me away
Where we have no name !!!
