

Leah Andreone, Saturday

Can you climb any higher
Get out on a limb
Hold a smile for hours
The walls are caving in
I feel the pressure
I need a holiday binge

Can you climb any higher
So I can feel it
Lose your mind any faster
Time is running out
I need a moment
To scream and shout

I think it's best if we stay together
I could hold you through all the stormy weather
I'll serenade you until your troubles are drained
You need an escape

Saturday wasting away
Let's let go and celebrate
Saturday give it a break
Waste the day and celebrate
On a Saturday

Can you squeeze any harder
So I can feel it
Scream a little bit louder
Louder than the rest
I'm not breathing
I can't catch a breath

I think it's best if we stay together
I could hold you through all the stormy weather
I'll serenade you until your troubles are drained
You need an escape

Saturday wasting away
Let's let go and celebrate
Waste the day and celebrate

Saturday wasting away
Let's let go and celebrate

The days are long
The song is sounding the same
You're wondering how
You're gonna get through the day
And you're so tired
This life is insane
But it's all right
Let go for a change

Chorus
