

Leah Haywood, Gonna Be Alright

Say you love me and kiss me goodbye
Got a one way ticket to my new life
Gonna miss you, but I know I'll be fine
If it gets too much I'll just drop you a line

When tomorrow comes and you're still on my mind

Any time that I should feel alone
I'll remember that you loved me so
And I'll close my eyes and I know that I'm gonna be alright.

Walking streets and watching passers by Doing too much coffee and not enough sleep
And I wonder will I make it here
But I'm happy thinking of you endlessly

When tomorrow comes and you're still on my mind

Any time that I should feel alone
I'll remember that you loved me so
And I'll close my eyes and I know that I'm gonna be alright.

(At night) At night when silence closes in
And thoughts of you begin
Gonna dream those tears away ooohhh

Anytime that I should feel alone
I'll remember that you loved me so
And I'll close my eyes and know that I'm gonna be alright
