

Leann Rimes & Brain McFadden, More than anyone

If i woke up tomorrow
And my eyes could not see
In darkness there'd be beauty
Of the love you shown to me
(chorus)

Cause i love longer and wider
Deeper and higher
Cause i've been loved
More than anyone deserves
If tomorrow for some reason
Somehow i could not hear
In silence there'd be music
Of a love that's always here
(chorus)

Cause i love longer and wider
Deeper and higher
Cause i've been loved
More than anyone deserves
And if i woke up in heaven
And i could not feel your touch
Then i want to be your angel
And i love you just as much
Cause i love longer and wider
Deeper and higher
Cause i've been loved
I've been loved
I've been loved
More than anyone deserves
