

LeAnn Rimes, Weight Of Love

Accept me for who I am
That I'm only human
And there are more important things
Then what we fight about
We won't always see eye to eye
We say hurtful things, sometimes
And it gets hard when you love someone so much

[Chorus]
Everybody's got highs, and lows
It's alright
It's the weight of love
Highs and lows, it's alright
Oh, It's the weight of love

Remember our first kiss

And how we melted in our seats
There will never be a January
As warm in Tennessee
It was an angel in the night
Nothing's ever felt so right
And even the stars over our backyard
Don't shine sometimes

[repeat chorus]

We will grow old together
Even for worse or better
Nothing will ever keep us apart

[repeat chorus]
