

Leaves' Eyes, Leaves Whisper

Tell me now, haven't you heard the leaves whisper
Secrets of heaven and earth and of a thousand springs?
Follow the wind and the storm at their command,
Sigh, hear the sigh of the waves and the grass shiver.

Haven't you heard (mmh)
What the leaves whisper? (Leaves whisper)
We've been seeking the truth,
The ancient songs of man.

Tell me why haven't you felt the rain dripping,
Falling from heaven on earth and makes life flow?
Watching the growing of grass and lakes smiling,
Witness the noon of the night and skies dwelling.

Mmh, tell me, haven't you heard?
Mmh, what the leaves whisper now?
Mmh, haven't you heard?
Mmh, we are seeking the truth?

Who calls on you now?
Who calls on you now?

Haven't you heard (mmh)
What the leaves whisper?
We've been seeking the truth,
The ancient songs of man.

Haven't you heard (mmh)
What the leaves whisper?
We've been seeking the truth,
The ancient songs of man.
We've been seeking the truth,
The ancient songs of man.~
