

Leaves' Eyes, Viking's Word

Can a choice be chained
When their decision is made?
Are we taking any anger away?

I don't want to change (I don't want to change),
I don't want this to stay in your heart forever (in your heart),
But the law is law and will be (indeed),
And I gave a Viking's word.

Faraway landscapes receive him with grace
In bright beauty and wonders,
We find truth of me.
I gave a Viking's word,
A Viking's word.

Can a man be chained?
Can a man be free?
Through some sad winters until the end comes swift.

For I will return (For I will return),
I don't want this to stay in your heart (in your heart).
By the grandeur it strained for (live on),
But I gave a Vikings word.

Faraway landscapes receive him with grace
In bright beauty and wonders,
We find truth of me.
I gave a Viking's word.

Where we were courting, embracing in peace
In hidden safety and freedom, we court without fear.
A Vikings word.

Faraway landscapes receive him with grace
In bright beauty and wonders,
We find truth of me.
