

Leaves' Eyes, Who Wants to Live Forever

Taste her apples of fortune
Your life becomes immortal
She's appearing to me with a shining smile

Her powers ward off chaos and strife
Fair goddess, she's the keeper of life
Her name is Idun so fair and so kind

I'll take you to the thunder home
Up high where icy towers rule

Who wants to live forever
Who is daring to escape
From the darkness
Leave the world behind

Who wants to live forever
For the stars we reach the sky
Who wants to live forever
And ever more

She's lured into the forest
Where the eagle is waiting for her
Mighty wings shall take her far away

High above, where the gods do dwell
There's a goddess with a magic well
When she left all turned old and grey

I'll keep you in the thunder home
Up high where icy towers rule

Who wants to live forever
Who is daring to escape
From the darkness
Leave the world behind

Who wants to live forever
For the stars we reach the sky
Who wants to live forever
And ever more

I will return
On Falcon wings
By divine magic

Who wants to live forever
Who is daring to escape
From the darkness
Leave the world behind

Who wants to live forever
For the stars we reach the sky
Who wants to live forever
And ever more

Ever more, who wants to live forever
Ever more, who wants to live forever
(Who wants to live forever)
Who wants to live forever and ever more
