

Lee Greenwood, Hearts Aren't Made To Break (T

(Roger Murrah/Steve Dean)

CHORUS:

Oh it tears me up when you go all to pieces
Your cryin' eyes say you've been hurt enough
Tryin' hard don't always make it easy
'Cause hearts aren't made to break, they're made to love

Lately all I do is think about you
It's weighin' like a stone inside my mind
I know I've taken you for granted
& left your heart hangin' on the line

(chorus)

Your love is finally gettin' to me
I can't believe the things I've done
& still you're standin' here beside me
The fool & the faithful one

(chorus)

Oh hearts aren't made to break, they're made to love
