

Lee Kernaghan, I'm From The Country

I'm from the country ' Lee Kernaghan

Way back up in the country
Back in the hills
And down in the hollows where the folks are real
Living with the crazies down an the old outcasts with saw'd off shotguns and coonskin hats
That's where I'm from and I'm proud to say

I'm from the Country and I like it that way

Everybody knows everybody
Everybody calls you friend
You don't need an invitation
Kick off your shoes, come on in
Yeah we know how to work and we know how to play

We're from the Country and we like it that way

All day long we work in the fields
Bring it on home to a home cooked meal
We love ya like Sunday, treat ya like Saturday night
That's right
When the beds get full we can sleep in the hay

We're from the Country and we like it that way

Everybody knows everybody
Everybody calls ya friend
You don't need an invitation
Kick off your shoes, come on in
Yeah we know how to work and we know how to play

We're from the Country and we like it that way

Everybody knows everybody
Everybody calls you friend
You don't need an invitation
Kick off your shoes and come on in
Yeah we know how to work and we know how to play

We're from the Country Wooo
We're from the Country Louder
We're from the Country and we like it that way
