

Lee Roy Parnell, Fifty-fifty Love

I know you&#039;ve been cheated and I know you&#039;ve been burned
So many times you&#039;ve given your heart and got nothing in return
It may seem like a gamble oh but take another chance tonight
Honey stay with me and you&#039;re gonna see that love can work out right

Fifty-fifty baby oh the way love&#039;s supposed to be
You know you&#039;re gonna get back every little good thing
You&#039;ve been giving to me
As long as we&#039;re got each other always gonna have enough
And keep a holding on to a hundred percent of this fifty-fifty love

Now don&#039;t you worry baby sause all in love is fair
And if we keep on giving it all we can we&#039;re both gonna get our share
It won&#039;t always be easy yeah but we&#039;ll take it day by day
And if we ever start to fall apart we&#039;ll meet each other halfway

Fifty-fifty baby oh the way love&#039;s supposed to be...

[ sax ]

Fifty-fifty baby oh the way love&#039;s supposed to be...
And keep a holding on to a hundred percent of this fifty-fifty love

Yeah fifty-fifty baby fifty-fifty love
Yeah fifty-fifty baby yeah fifty-fifty love
