

Lee Roy Parnell, Little Bit Of You

High wires thin ice since you came along I don't even think twice
Long shots no sweat what's a little gamble when there's one sure bet

When I'm fadin' at the finish doubted and diminished
Feeling for a minute that I can't endure
No matter what the problem you know how to solve it
Ain't nothing that a little bit of you can't cure
There ain't nothin' that a little bit of you can't cure

[guitar]

One touch three words is all I need to lean against the weight of this world
In your faith I trust is it any wonder that I never give up

When I'm fadin' at the finish...

[guitar]

When I'm fadin' at the finish...

There ain't nothing
There ain't nothing that a little bit of you can't cure
There ain't nothing
There ain't nothing that a little bit of you can't cure
