

Lee Roy Parnell, Love Without Mercy

Woke up this morning and I knew I&#039;d be late
Somehow it came as no surprise
I saw the way she was looking at me
I saw no mercy in her eyes

She gives me love without mercy her arms don&#039;t wanna let go
Love without mercy am I complaining mercy no

[ guitar ]

I have no trouble sleeping at night
When I got a problem on my mind
But she give me something precious and sweet
And it solves that problem every time

She gives me love without mercy...

When I feel like this world wants no part of me
She knows I need love not sympathy

She gives me love without mercy...
I said am I complaining mercy no
