

Lee Roy Parnell, Saved By The Grace Of Your Love

I'm just a man that's all I am hopes and dreams flesh and bone
And though my friends may desert me and life may hurt me
I know I'm never alone

Cause I'm saved by the grace of your love
I'm born again in the warmth of your touch
All my faults and my failures don't amount to that much
Loving you is always enough
You see I'm saved by the grace of your love

And when I fall tryin' all I can to find the better man in me
I'm never down so low cause you always let me know
That who I am is all I need to be

Yes I'm saved by the grace of your love...

Let your light surround me and I'm so glad that you found me

[guitar]
All my faults and my failures...
