

Lee Ryan, Daydreamer

Young man got a lot of soul
In god he trust he broke the mould with this one
It feels like theres nowhere left to run
In fact his life has just begun
With a dream
And sometimes that's enough

Fly away drift and glide
Fly away drift and glide

Daydreamer what are you dreaming of Daydreamer what are you thinking of Daydreamer i wanna dream with you
And leave it all behind
I say welcome to the dreamtime.

Young girl that i used to know
Sung a lullaby and stole the show from everyone
I tell ya just when she closed her eyes
She saw the world and she fantasised it was part of her
And it was beautiful

A swan song for my girl
I love you but i dont know where you are
So long for now
I'll see you in my dreamtime.
