

Lee Ryan, In The Morning

Sometimes i watch you while you're sleeping
So amazed at how pretty you are
I wonder what it is you're dreaming sometimes
Where your mind goes and just how far

Is it me that makes you smile when your dreaming
Or could it be the other man you're seeing

I'll guess i'll ask you in the morning
Right before i pack my things and walk right out the door
I'll guess i'll ask you in the morning
I'll pretend we're still in love tonight 'cause we won't be anymore

In the morning, in the morning

Wish i could see inside your mind
So i could find where we went wrong
Because your happiness was my sunshine
I should have known the rain was sure to come

Is it me that makes you smile when your dreaming
Or could it be the other man you're seeing

I'll guess i'll ask you in the morning
Right before i pack my things and walk right out the door
I'll guess i'll ask you in the morning
I'll pretend we're still in love tonight 'cause we won't be anymore

In morning, in the morning, in the morning, in the morning
