

Lee Ryan, Miss My Everything

She's the same colour as my dream
I'm not quite sure of what that means
All that I know I when I see
Her face is all that I can see

Infatuation no not me
To call this love is too easy
Words don't do this feeling justice
I'd give my life for one kiss

From her head to her feet
She's the best part of me

Miss my everything and so much more
The only way to describe what she is to my life
Miss my Everything and so much more

No matter how much I might try
No way of hiding what I feel inside
Treasure more than diamonds and pearls
My Simple love for this one girl.
