

Left Alone, By My Side

And I can not believe what I want today cause I'm not alone anymore all the things she makes me feel they run so deep inside a love forever more

walking, holding hands, kissing on the white sand well there's nothing better than this don't wanna be a stranger don't wanna be afraid now well she's something that i will miss

won't be alone tonight
i got my girl by my side
and there's nothing else that's better than this holding out my arms as we strain to kiss she's always got a smile on her face in the wrong laughing place her love feels like home don't wanna be a poison don't wanna fall apart now don't wanna go back to being alone
