

Left Hand Solution, Nightbloom

(words: Barthold, music: Mrdstam, Barthold, Selin)

Seeding silence from words unspoken
As you slowly fade Symbols of lust, never be broken
But in the dawn you'll wither away

Open up again as your body ascends

Wandering through forests of ebony
In your floral splendour cell
When the night comes over again
I'll be back with you in hell

Open up again as your body ascends

To roam within all darkness and flee from every light Solitude is dying
as you flourish at night
