

Lefty, Come Back Down

it's such a put on the way you try and hold me back and its a let down how you fell apart so fast so you hold on think your gonna finally get your way and then you shut down shut it down again and I won't breath until you cave into to me
I won't leave this place now plant my feet on your ground wipe your mind i'll wash my hands memories of enemies are all you have

plant my feet until you cave into me nothing left until you:come back down come back when you come back:down
