

Lefty Frizzel, Preparations To Be Blue

I got out my old teardrops tonight just to try to be on again for size
I know that I'll be needing them before too long so I'm making preparations to be blue
Making preparations to be blue getting ready to win I lose you
Taking an inventor of what's left of me and you so I'm making preparations to be blue (piano)
I'm locked in all your memories inside my heart
One by one I'll take 'em out and we're apart
Seeing you with him I knew my heartaches were old friends
So I'm making preparations to be blue
Making preparations...
