

Lefty Frizzel, Treasure Untold

Dreaming of you and your eyes of blue I've loved you forever it seems
I've longed for you dear wanted you near you are the girl of my dreams
Although I have met you just now I'll tell you of my love somehow
If I could but win your heart little girl then I would have treasures untold
The kisses you gave me in life's sweetest dreams are even more precious than gold
I love your sweet face and your dear smiling eyes how often this story's been told
If I could but win your heart little girl then I would have treasures untold (piano - dobro)
If I could but win...
