

Legend Maker, At The End (Millenium)

[Music and lyrics: Mauricio Ochoa]

[All vocal melodies and vocal arrangements: Diego Gomez]

A new era comes,
To breed on the minds of the young
See the winds of wisdom they blow
Harmony with the eyes unknown
The planet sees the change
The blood that we use to paint
Ecology a practice learned
For what our sons hope for
Hearts that we've filled with hate
Are now the ones with shame
The millennium starts from here
To purify our souls and minds

[Chorus]

That's what we're living for
A place that we used to know
Eden lies right ahead
We hope to stay
Same sky we are the same
To live in peace, night or day
We are born here and now
Fill our hearts with silent sound

[Solo: Mauricio]

[Chorus]

[Solo: Mauricio]

...at the end
