

Legend Maker, Sands of Time

Time goes by, it will never return.
And at the end, it begins again.
Ah holy master,
Tell me the answer.
Fill all my body with the power and light.

(Chorus)
Show me the truth,
send me through to the right way.
Please tell me why
I have to die again.

Traveling through dimensions and lives.
And all the mysteries seem so real to me.
And in my dreams you're always there.
In some other times,
And in some other lives

(Chorus)
Show me the truth,
send me through to the right way.
When I grow old,
I'll have my life left away.

(Chorus)
Please tell me why
I have to die again.
