

Legendary Jim Knopf, Dark Eyes

It is you I want to get to know
Please don't say it isn't so
Though this way is covered with lies
I tear down walls to get to you
I don't know anything else to do
Just to see into your dark eyes

The way you look it makes me feel
It makes me crues from head to heel
The look one funny and look one wise
One glance mekes a moment have no end
Another one makes things just insignificant
It is in your dark eyes

Your look, your moving is just art
I hope this will never be taken apart
They are to your beaty the last spice

Your look, your moving is just art
I hope this will never be taken apart
I just need you and your dark eyes!
