

Legion Of The Damned, Nocturnal Predator

Nocturnal predator is looking for prey
Terror strikes in the dead of night
Hell has sent an angel of wrath
And murder fills the city with fright
Blessed by the lord from below
He cut his first victim's throat
More slashing will soon follow
Sworn to his satanic oath
Hand of death
Demon claw
Night stalker
Nocturnal predator
Out for another bloody sacrifice
Stealthily he enters the house
Jack the knife wields his gun
Shooting men in front of their spouse
Carving up the wife in neck, face and groin
Satisfying his sadistic delight
The misanthropic killer gouged her
And took, with him, her eyes
Sadistic intruder went on with his mission
To hunt and kill human prey
Raping the women, he captured
Forcing them to give the devil praise
Drawing occult signs on the bodies
The pentagram left as his mark
He was caught but awaits his revenge
Slashing disciple of the dark
Hand of death
Demon claw
Night stalker
Nocturnal predator
Nocturnal hunter is looking for prey
Terror strikes in the dead of the night
Hell has sent an angel of wrath
And murder fills the city with fright
Blessed by the lord from below
He gave in, to the demonic call
Now he waits on deathrow
Lucifer dwells within us all
